

Derek is an Aviation Project Manager for AECOM. AECOM is a full service Architectural and Engineering firm with nearly 50,000 employees world-wide, ranked as #1 in Transportation and Aviation by the ENR. AECOM specializes in aviation work, providing both general aviation and commercial service airports A&E services throughout the Mid-Atlantic region for over 80 years. Derek graduated with a B.S. degree in Civil/Environmental Engineering from the Pennsylvania State University and is a registered Professional Engineer. Derek leads a team of aviation engineering and construction management staff and is responsible for design, engineering, and construction management of airfield safety, standards, improvement, and expansion programs. Derek is experienced in project/program management, airport engineering, construction administration/inspection, quality control/assurance, construction safety/phasing, pavement design/maintenance, contracting, specifications, permitting, scheduling, estimating/budgets, funding and grants.