

Director of Enterprise Risk Management The Hillsborough County Aviation Authority

Description: The Hillsborough County Aviation Authority is seeking a Director of Enterprise Risk Management. This position is responsible for responsible for planning, implementing, and overseeing the Enterprise Risk Management program for the Authority. The director will collaborate with departments to identify, assess, and mitigate risk, and capitalize on opportunities in all phases of the Authority's operations. Reports findings and makes recommendations regarding risk exposures, evaluates the need for and directs the purchase of various insurance products and services, and oversees the Authority's employee safety program. The director works closely with the Director of Airside Operation and Emergency Management to ensure end-to-end business resiliency.

Minimum Requirements: Graduation from an accredited four-year degree granting college or university and five years of experience in enterprise risk management, development of insurance portfolios, evaluation of insurance needs, risk and loss control, safety, risk reduction, or an equivalent combination of experience. The ability to assess exposures and determine the applicable insurance coverage needed to protect the Authority and process claim information to conclusion. Computer and other standard office equipment skills; planning and decision-making skills; and oral and written communication skills are required. A valid Florida Driver's License (or the ability to obtain).

Salary/Benefits: The starting salary range for this position is $130,000 - $155,000 DOE and there is an extraordinary benefits package. Anticipated starting salary is commensurate with experience.
Submission Deadline: October 17, 2021

Who to Contact: https://adkexecutivesearch.com/wp-content/uploads/2021/08/TPA_Director-of-Enterprise-Risk-Management_Brochure_2.pdf