

Michael Lobman, Construction Management, Michael Baker International

Michael Lobman is a Senior Resident Project Representative in Construction Services at Michael Baker International. A graduate of Richard Stockton College in New Jersey, Mike holds a NICET IV certification and brings over 20 years of hands-on experience in construction inspection and management to major transportation infrastructure projects. His expertise ensures quality, safety, and efficiency on complex job sites.