

Randy C. Talley

Senior Advisor, Transportation Security Administration (TSA)

Mr. Talley is a Senior Advisor assigned to the U.S. Department of Homeland Security's (DHS) Transportation Security Administration (TSA) located in Springfield, VA. He uses his aviation expertise, cybersecurity insight and operational Homeland Security background to provide aviation cyber-specific advice to TSA leadership.

In his primary role, Mr. Talley serves as the DHS Lead for the Aviation Cyber Initiative (ACI), a Tri-Chaired Task Force assigned to collaborate across the Federal Government and the aviation industry to reduce risks and improve resilience within the Nation's Aviation Ecosystem.

Mr. Talley has a diverse career as a military officer, aviator and civil servant spanning over 40 years. He has held numerous positions, both in a military and civilian capacity, within the fields of cybersecurity, command, control, and communications, aviation operations, and training.

